

What we need to know

Reflect upon your team's environmental health issue and decide what knowledge and skills you already have. What do you need to find out to complete the challenge? Revisit and revise this list throughout the challenge process.

What do you already know about the issue?	What do you still need to know to solve your environmental health issue?	Where will you get this knowledge?	What skills or equipment do you need to create a design of your solution?